TO CANCEL DEEDS

SUITS FILED WEDNESDAY TO HAVE DEEDS SET ASIDE.

IN THE MOORE FAMILY

The Suits Are a 320-Acre Tract and a 160-Acre Tract of Land in Nodaway County.

By suits filed Wednesday by Shinnabarger, Blagg & Ellison, attorneys for Charles C. Moore of this city and his sister, Belle M. Russell of Seattle, Wash., they ask that deeds be set aside to 320 acres of land and 160 acres of land, both farms in Nodaway county. The first suit filed was that of C. C. Moore and Belle M. Russell vs. John Sylvester Moore, Jennie Luella Woodard, John M. Woodard, her husband, and R. D. Curl and Addie L. Curl, his wife.

The petition states that John Moore died February 6, 1913, leaving as heirs four children, C. C. Moore, Belle Russell, Sylvester Moore and Luella Woodard. About a month before his death, or January 2, 1913, the petition claims, John Moore executed and delivered a warranty deed to 320 acres of land in Nodaway county to R. D. Curl as a conduit of title only, and immediately thereafter R. D. Curl and his wife, joining, executed a warranty deed to John Moore for the term of his natural life, remainder in fee simple, J. Sylvester Moore and Jennie Luella Woodard as tenants in common. The petition alleges that no consideration was made and that the deed was not the free act and deed of John Moore. The petition says that John Moore was in feeble health and of unsound mind and weakened by illness to such an extent as to be incapable of transacting business and managing his own affairs, and that the defendants did poison his mind against plaintiffs by false statements, and that he was under the complete domination of J. Sylvester and Jennie Luella Woodard. John Moore was at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Woodard, in Pueblo, Col., at the time of his weakened condition and of his making out the deeds, the petition states.

The plaintiffs ask that the court set aside and cancel the deeds and invest the title to land to the plaintiffs and Sylvester Moore and Luella Woodard as tenants in common.

The other suit is Charles C. Moore and Belle M. Russell vs. John Sylvester Moore and Jennie Luella Woodard. The petition claims that Eliza F. Moore died August 19, 1912, and that on April 15, 1912, she executed and delivered a warranty deed to the defendants to 160 acres of land in Nodaway county, and the consideration was $9,000. According to the petition the plaintiffs say that there was no consideration and that the deed was not the free act and deed of Eliza F. Moore, as she was under the domination of the defendants. The plaintiffs ask that these deeds be set aside and canceled and that the title to the land be invested in her four children, C. C. Moore, Belle Russell, Sylvester Moore and Luella Woodard.

These cases will not come up until the June term of circuit court. The defendants, John Sylvester Moore resides at Kansas City and Jennie Luella Woodard at Pueblo, Col.

Miss Myrtle Peterson of Mariaville, Neb., who has been attending the Normal, and making her home with her cousin, Mrs. W. A. Miller, went to Bloomfield, Neb., Wednesday to visit a brother before returning home.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

To Be Held in St. Joseph March 6, 7 and 8—Dr. Taylor on the Program.

The program arranged for the interstate agricultural and industrial congress at St. Joseph, March 6, 7 and 8, can be truthfully characterized as the most complete and elaborate ever planned for a farm congress.

The best of the group of advanced students and authorities on agricultural conditions and problems have been secured for this the greatest farmers' institute ever held in the United States. And more than this, men who are past masters in the industries that are so closely allied to farming are on the program. WILLIE SPOOR IS HAVING A TUS-SLE IN CHICAGO.

AT PASTEUR INSTITUTE

Mr. Spoor Writes That He Believes Treatment Will Win Out on His Child.

Willie, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Spoor of this city, is very sick at the Pasteur institute at Chicago, where he is taking treatment for a bite from the silk poodle dog of D. T. Littler of Tulsa, Okla., who was visiting in Maryville two weeks ago.

The child was bitten two weeks ago today. The bite was not more than a scratch, but as the blood was drawn Mr. Spoor feared to risk results, and left the following Saturday night with the boy for Chicago. The dog was brought here from Tulsa, Okla., by Mr. Littler and his family, who were visiting at the home of Mr. Littler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnham of East Third street. The dog got away from them and wandered about over the city and acted so strangely that Mr. Littler had it chloroformed and sent to the state board of health at Jefferson City for examination. It was the opinion of the examining physicians that the dog had been affected with rabies.

Mrs. Spoor received a letter from Mr. Spoor on Tuesday evening saying that although the child was very sick he thought that there was no cause for serious alarm, as he believed the child would be saved. He said his body was swollen considerably and that he seems very sick, but was encouraged by the physicians, who believed the Pasteur treatment would win out.

At the time the Spoor child was bitten the dog caught the hand of Mr. Littler's little girl, but his teeth did not cause a break of the skin. The Littler family is now in St. Joseph.

Before the games at progressive dominoes began, several piano numbers were given by Miss Cleo Grundy, Miss Avis Pinnell and Miss Bessie Allen. The game prize, a bouquet of cut flowers, was won by Miss Mildred Cummings, and the consolation prize, a box of candy, went to Miss Oma Robey. Kitchen Shower for Bride-Elect.

The members of the Sunday school class taught by Miss Maude Roach at the M. E. church of Pickering, gave her a kitchen shower Tuesday night at the home of her father, T. H. Roach, near Pickering. The guests were dressed in fantastic costumes, some representing gypsies, some Indians, while others were in colonial costumes. They made the trip in a large wagon that stopped some distance from the Roach home as the visitors intended it for a surprise, which was entirely successful. Each one carried a musical instrument, consisting of banjos, guitars, horns drums, and marched up the walk to the front entrance, playing Lohengrin's wedding march. The house appeared to be all in darkness, but the party marched around to the kitchen door where a light was burning, and where the bride-elect was busy with some preparation for her wedding day. When the door opened and a grotesque looking company filed in, she was badly frightened, but when they began singing a verse to the tune of "The Camels Are Coming," she realized that the secret she had guarded so carefully had gotten out and was hers no longer. Quite a musical program followed the original song, when a miscellaneous shower was given. Miss Roach is to be married Thursday, February 20, at high noon to Mr. Frank Simerly of Fillmore, Mo. The guests Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wray, Mrs. Roy Wolfers, Miss Mary Wolfers, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rickard, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Loch, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiley, Miss Minnie Everhart, Miss Hattie Patterson, Miss Edith Christy, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Miss Jessie Clayton, Messrs. Stant Garten, Andrew King and Prof. Summerville.

A Book Masquerade Party.

Mrs. D. E. McDonald of South Main street entertained the Anoma class of the First Baptist church Sunday school Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Jean Andrews of Junction City, Kan., who spent several months in Maryville last year and was a member of the class. The guests represented the title of some book in attire, and some of the masquerading was exceedingly clever, "Peck's Bad Boy," "A Memory of India," "The Servant in the House" and "The Blue Flower" being the best in the order given. The evening was spent in contests and in trying to guess the titles of the books represented. The hostess was assisted in entertaining and serving by Miss Andrews, Miss Laura White and Miss Dorothy McDonald. A course luncheon was served at the close of a delightful evening. The evening was also the ninth wedding anniversary of Mrs. John Borrius, one of the guests. The following books were represented by the guests whose names appear below: "Peck's Bad Boy," "A Memory of India," "A Servant in the House," "The Blue Flower," "The Rosary," "Lavender and Old Lace," "The Lass of the Silver Sword," "The Black Bag," "The Goose Girl," "The White Prophet," "She," "Madame X," "Little Women," "Cast Up by the Sea," "Cook Book," "Under Two Flags," "Heart of Gold." Their Mid-Winter Social.

The M. I. Circle held its mid-winter social at the home of Mrs. Charles McNeal Tuesday afternoon, and it proved a very enjoyable affair. The usual devotional service was led by Mrs. C. B. Roberts. Roll call was responded to with original valentines, the Circle voting the prize to Mrs. T. K. Wray for writing the best valentine. Before the pleasures of the afternoon began the president, Mrs. W. B. Christy, spoke of the sorrow that had come to a retired member of the Circle, Mrs. M. J. Honnold, in the tragic death of her son-in-law, Mr. George P. Bellows, the day previous, and the members agreed to write words of sympathy to her. The afternoon was given mostly to viewing the private collections of works of art that had been gathered for the day by the entertainment committee, Mrs. W. B. Christy, Mrs. I. W. Nixon and Mrs. A. C. Hopkins. If the visitors to the exhibition had been high school girls instead of the dignified matrons they are they would have pronounced the affair "perfectly killing," and could never in the world have heeded the request of the president, "Please do not speak above a whisper or touch the exhibits," and received her approval at the close of the afternoon for having behaved so well. A delicious luncheon went along with the other good things of the day. The members, with their guests, present were: Mrs. W. A. Bailey, with Mrs. Lee Harrel as her guest; Mrs. W. A. Blagg, with Mrs. G. A. VanSteenbergh; Mrs. Vada Halley, with Mrs. L. L. Maier; Mrs. F. M. Martin, with Mrs. B. F. Duncan; Mrs. Charles McNeal, with her mother, Mrs. Lambert; Mrs. J. E. Communication

For the Farmer Boys.

Editor Democrat-Forum: I have just read your interesting article in the weekly paper in which you refer to Professor Field's recent discovery of a latter day "Apollo." Now, I wonder where those country boys came from that were so round shouldered, flat chested and, generally speaking, awkward and ungainly, lacking in muscular development, etc. Possibly from among the hill billies of the far south, though we doubt it, and certainly not from among the farmer boys of Northwest Missouri. The Columbia professor claims that the country boy has a slower beat of the heart, causing him to be less vigorous than the city boy. How, then, would he account for the marvelous energy of the French emperor, Napoleon I, who had a remarkable slow beat of the heart. I wonder if this "near Apollo" could "step lively" behind the corn plow on a hot summer afternoon and plow the customary forty rows of corn a quarter of a mile long, and still preserve that "divine pose" for which Apollos have always been pretty famous. When Uncle Sam is looking for infantrymen he invariably picks the boys who have learned to march behind the plow. They may not be able to "skin the cat" in a city gymnasium, but when it comes to feeding the multitude, may "their shadows never grow less," for without them many of us would "be an hungred" and sadly in need of comfortable raiment.

DIVORCE MADE HARD IN MISSOURI.

Remarriage Will Be Harder Still if Senator Phillips' Act Goes Into Effect.

Jefferson City, Feb. 19.—If measures pending in the senate and house regulating divorces in Missouri are enacted it will be a difficult matter for a couple to obtain a legal separation unless the grounds advanced are true and deserving.

A measure of Senator Phillips provides the guilty party, when a decree is granted, forfeits all rights and claims under and by virtue of the marriage and cannot marry again for a year except on an express order of the court.

The court before granting the decree can require proof of the good conduct of the petitioner to establish that he or she is really an innocent and injured party.

The court is empowered to appoint a person to make inquiry into the good faith of the applicant for the divorce for which service a fee of $10 is allowed.

The grounds for a decree are unfaithfulness, absence without a reasonable cause for a year, conviction for a felony or infamous crime, habitual drunkenness for a year, cruel or barbarous treatment, endangering life, indignities which make the life of the other person intolerable, conviction for a felony prior to the marriage, the knowledge of which is withheld from the other party when the ceremony is performed; bigamy and one or two other statutory offenses.

The first decree, under the provisions of another bill of Senator Phillips, is made provisional only, and one year later the court can, on the application of the injured party, make the divorce final on the proof of good conduct on his or her part.

WETS AT PEACE WITH THE DRYS

Liquor War Ended at Missouri Democratic Caucus.

WILSON IS THE PEACEMAKER.

Jefferson City, Feb. 19.—An agreement was reached upon home rule bills for St. Louis in a caucus of the Democratic members of the legislature. It is believed that the bills, as agreed upon, will go through the legislature without further opposition, and the most troublesome problem of the session, which threatened to block all legislation, is settled.

The bill agreed upon for home rule on police affairs provides for a bipartisan board of police commissioners of two. The commissioners are to be appointed by the mayor and subject to removal by him and also by the governor by dereliction in office. The bill also provides that in event the governor is compelled to remove three commissioners the power of appointing the next commissioners shall be with the governor.

Senator Wilson was the man who finally got the "wets" and "dry" together on the home rule bill. He took the stand that the platform pledge for home rule must be kept. At the same time he got the St. Louis delegation to agree on concessions which satisfied the "dry."

A bill abolishing capital punishment in Missouri was introduced in the house by Representative Bretz of St. Joseph.

Walsh is wearing the fourth pair of shoes he is officially testing.

SUFFRAGE BILL MOVES UP.

Senate Ordered Resolution Engrossed—Craig Was the Leader.

Jefferson City, Feb. 19.—The proposed woman suffrage amendment to the constitution was ordered engrossed by the senate Tuesday by enough votes to pass it, unless meantime some of the senators change their minds. There was no debate on the merits of the resolution.

Senator Goodson of Macon offered three amendments, all of which were defeated. The first added a new section providing an educational qualification, save as to persons who were legal voters in 1856.

Another amendment making a poll tax receipt a necessary qualification to voting on the part of those subject to such tax. This was lost without debate as was also a third amendment offered providing a state-wide registration of voters.

The roll was not called but nineteen senators voted to engross the measure and five against it.

Only one of the leading suffragettes, Mrs. D. W. Kneffler of St. Louis, was in the senate chamber. She took her position immediately behind Senator Craig of Nodaway county, and at times coached the latter to attack the Goodson amendments.

If the legislature adopts the measure the state will vote on the amendment in November, 1914.

PROTECTION OF AMERICANS NEXT

Immediate Demand to Be Made on New Mexican Government.

RECOGNITION WILL COME LATER

News of Political Upheaval in South Republic Relieves Washington Officials, but They Have No Comment to Make.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The government of Francisco I. Madero having fallen and General Victoriano Huerta having been proclaimed president of Mexico, it devolves upon United States Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson to move at once with the de facto Mexican government for the protection of Americans throughout the republic.

It will be Mr. Wilson's duty to deal with the new president for the amelioration of conditions imposed on Americans and other foreigners as a result of the fighting in the streets of Mexico City, in which some foreigners were killed, others wounded and thousands rendered homeless.

Political recognition of the government which emerged out of the travail through which Mexico has passed in the last two years will be a slower proceeding.

Two Leaders to Be Dealt With.

While this government will take no concern over a successor to President Madero, such a successor will have to demonstrate his ability to maintain a stable government before political recognition will be accorded him by the United States. Mexico today is honeycombed and torn asunder by many revolutionary movements. The principal of these are the Orozco move in the north and the Zapata uprising in the south. Lawlessness has become rife and robber bands, masquerading as revolutionists, have sent terror through the states of Mexico from the Rio Grande to Yucatan.

In order to lay claim to political recognition from this government, the United States will demand that the new president, be he General Huerta or some other, must suppress these disturbing elements, restore order and establish the workings of justice in the states.

The formality of political recognition in all likelihood will fall to the administration of President elect Wilson.

MANY TRAINING FOR RIDE

Morehead Will Head New Jersey Civic Division in Inaugural Parade.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Perspiring gentlemen, portly and otherwise, are to be encountered these days on every road bouncing up and down on horse back. Equestrians who have never before been in the saddle have been requested to act as marshals in the parade. There are 300 marshals in the country, and they were given orders to go into training. It developed that because of the fact that several governors propose riding at the head of their state troops, a number of state delegations will be headed by the governors of other states. New Jersey's civic division will be led by the governor of Nebraska.

Wisconsin Upper Berth Act Upheld.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 19.—The supreme court upheld the constitutionality of the "upper berth law" enacted by the 1911 legislature. This law provides that the upper berth shall be closed when not occupied. The court held that the law is not in conflict with the interstate commerce act.

By Common Garden Sage a
Simple Remedy for Dandruff,
Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with a "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp, and thin, weak, falling hair.

The beauty of the hair depends more on its rich, even shading than anything else. Don't have dry, harsh faded hair, when a simple, harmless remedy will bring back the color in a few days; and don't be tormented with dandruff, itching scalp and loose, falling hairs. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will quickly correct these troubles, and give color, strength and beauty to your hair.

MADERO DEPOSED
BY TROOPS*Huerta Made Governor of Mexico.*COUP RESULT OF PLOT*Former Popular Idol is Forced to Sign His Resignation.

Mexico City, Feb. 19.—Francisco I. Madero, arrested in the national palace by General Blanquet, one of his own commanders, was forced to sign his resignation from the presidency.

General Victoriano Huerta, who has been fighting Diaz, has been proclaimed provisional governor. General Madero and all the cabinet ministers, with the exception of Ernesto Madero, are under arrest. The vice president of the republic, Jose Pino Suarez, still is at liberty, but is hiding.

The American ambassador and the other foreign diplomats held a conference at the American embassy to discuss the re-establishment of order and the further protection of foreign residents.

The Zocelo, the great plaza in front of the palace, was jammed with a delirious crowd, with banners inscribed "Peace and Liberty," shouting for Diaz, Huerta, Blanquet and Mondragon.

Women Saved From Arrest.

The women members of the Madero family, who were in the Chapultepec castle, were whisked away in an automobile by friends who had learned of the coup at the national palace.

Telegrams have been sent to the governors of the states, notifying them of the proclamation of Huerta as provisional governor, and also to the military commanders, assuring them that general elections will be held for president.

Huerta Not Ambitious.

General Huerta made a speech from the balcony of the palace to assembled crowds. He declared he had no personal ambition, and announced himself as military governor and General Blanquet as military commander of the federal district.

It is fully believed that a definite agreement will be reached between the rebel forces and General Huerta. The negotiations will be conducted through the American embassy.

About the time Madero was seized by Blanquet, Gustavo Madero, his brother, the former minister of finance, was arrested by General Huerta, who was dining with him in a public restaurant.

All members of the cabinet promptly were placed under arrest with the exception of Ernesto Madero, the uncle of the president, who held the portfolio of finance. He was apprised of the intentions against the Madero government and made his escape.

Plot Laid by Generals.

The direct movement against Madero was the result of a plot.

From the first it had been known that General Blanquet was unwilling to fight. His men were of the same mind. His forces, numbering 1,000 men, which arrived Monday, were sent immediately to the palace, ostensibly to relieve the reserves there.

An agreement between Generals Blanquet and Huerta was reached, but the first intimation that Blanquet's men had of the new role they were to play was shortly before the successful strike was made. Blanquet drew his men up in order and delivered a stirring speech.

Blanquet Addresses Men.

"This inhuman battle must end," he said. "The time has come when some drastic means must be taken to stop a conflict in which father is killing son and in which brother is fighting against brother, when non-combatants are sharing the fate of war—and all this because of the caprice of one man."

Blanquet then issued orders for the arrest of Madero and assigned a detachment to that duty. Madero was soon a prisoner in his own rooms.

One reason given for the attitude of General Blanquet from the beginning was the presence of his son in the ranks of Diaz.

When the arrest of the president and his ministers became known crowds gathered in the streets, through which they paraded shouting "vivas" for Huerta and Diaz.

A conference was held between the representatives of these two generals and an agreement was reached whereby the appointment of General Huerta to the provisional presidency was proclaimed.

Prior to this, however, Huerta's attempt to communicate with Diaz precipitated one of the sharpest engagements of the day. The fire from the rebel rifles and machine guns was long sustained. A half hour later

"cease firing" was heard and the battle was over.

Madero Overpowered.

Members of Madero's staff rushed into his room when Madero was struggling with the soldiers and went to his aid, but their efforts were of no avail. Captain Garmendia, who had just been appointed chief of police, advanced upon Colonel Riverolla, shooting and wounding him seriously. Immediately there was an exchange of shots and three or four members of the president's staff are said to have been wounded.

The arrest of Madero took place in the hall of the ambassadors. When the president entered the room he found all the entrances guarded.

Tries to Shoot President.

One soldier, over-excited by the words of Blanquet, pointed his gun at the breast of Madero, who leaped upon him. In the struggle the gun was discharged without injuring anyone. The soldier was disarmed and placed under arrest by order of General Huerta on the charge of firing without orders.

General Huerta was formerly commander of the north division of the army. He has seen much service in the present campaign and last year fought a number of engagements against the insurgents under Orozco. Huerta retired from his command last December and was offered a post in the war department.

When the Diaz revolt began in the capital, Huerta led the government troops and was named as post commander of Mexico City when General Villar was wounded.

IZZY TESTIFIES FOR STATE

Fire Insurance Adjuster Tried in Arson Prosecution.

New York, Feb. 19.—The first trial of men indicted as members of the "arson trust" recently discovered in existence in this city was begun before Justice Goff in the supreme court. R. J. Rubin, a Broadway fire insurance adjuster, is first of a score or more of defendants to be brought to bar charged with second degree arson.

Isidore Stein, known as "Izzy the Painter," a Sing Sing prison convict, whose confession was followed by many indictments, was the state's first witness against Rubin. "Izzy" gave the jury a graphic narration of how he fired buildings for the purpose of enabling members of the "trust" to defraud fire insurance companies.

Literacy Test Finds Only Eighteen Opponents in Upper House—Lodge Charges Steamship Companies Behind Opposition to Act.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill, vetoed by President Taft because it imposed a literacy test upon immigrants, was passed over the president's veto in the senate, 52 to 18. The overwhelming majority given at the end of a short debate, in which President Taft's attitude was criticized vigorously, has strengthened the probability that the bill will be passed over the veto in the house when it is called up.

Support of the president's position was voiced in the debate by but few speakers. Senators Lodge and Dillingham, leading the fight to override the president, declared the measure outlined so many important provisions for the exclusion of criminal, diseased and insane aliens that great harm would result to the United States if it did not become law.

"I fail to understand why it is that the United States alone among nations is not thought to have the right that all nations have to say who shall come within its borders," said Senator Lodge. "It is the only country in the world where it is argued that people born in other countries who never have seen the United States are entitled to certain rights therein."

Would Exercise Right.

"It is for the citizens of the United States to say who shall come into their country. That is a primary right. Still less do I understand this extreme opposition to requiring that an immigrant shall be able to read before he enters the United States. We do not allow a man to become a part of our body politic unless he can read and write his name."

"We do not hesitate to apply a literacy test to our own people. Why is it we should hesitate to apply it to a foreigner?"

"The opposition to this test at bottom is the same opposition that is made to every effort to improve our immigration laws or restrict in any degree the number of immigrants. It comes from the steamship companies. For twenty-five years we have met that opposition at every turn. It is here today."

"My reason for supporting the bill," said Senator Williams, "is that I am afraid of ignorance. I am afraid of the man who strikes out blindly to overcome the wrongs he thinks exist."

Legislature to Probe Gotham Police.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19.—The New York state legislature adopted a resolution providing for a searching investigation of the New York city police situation by a joint committee of five senators and six assemblymen. Wilson's Anti-Trust Bills Passed.

Morgan Continues to Improve.

BALDHEADED ROW.

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness.

Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs?

And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill these germs is to use Parisian Sage, which the Koch pharmacy has so much faith in that they guarantee it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic, pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit.

It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by the Koch Pharmacy for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.—Advertisement.

It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

OLD AGE DEFERRED.Echo From the Medico-Legal Society.

A few generations back a man at 50 was considered old, gray-bearded, and waiting for death. Note the change today; at a meeting of the Medico-Legal society it was stated that a man of 50 ought to have forty good years ahead of him, and thus at 90 be in the fullness of maturity.

What if you have seen sixty, or even seventy birthdays—temperate habits, fresh air and exercise, with a simple diet and a sufficient amount of sleep will guard your health.

If perchance your circulation is poor, if you become run down—weak and no appetite—nothing in the world will tone up those tired back-sliding organs—enrich the blood and create strength so quickly as our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol.

We ask every feeble, discouraged old person in this vicinity to try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction.—Advertisement.

SUCCESSFUL CLAIRVOYANT

Mr. Carl Bauer, the Famous German Clairvoyant and Psychologist, is Now in Maryville.

All the world is seeking light on occult forces, but Carl Bauer is a child of nature's greatest gifts and holds this divine gift as a sacred trust. Think of a man who can see your whole life as an open book. His extraordinary powers enable him to read human life with unerring accuracy. If you have been disappointed by others claiming this power and have been deceived by their work, do not get discouraged, as there are impostors and frauds in all walks of life, and the clairvoyant profession is no exception.

To those who are skeptical about the claims of Carl Bauer he desires to say that he will positively make no charge unless you find him superior to all others. Can anything be fairer? Why waste money with pretenders when you can be assured of success by consulting the best for the same money? Without asking a question, without any previous knowledge and having no natural means of knowing who you are, whence or from what you came, giving names, dates, facts and locations, taking no fee in advance, accepting none unless satisfaction is given.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Mr. Bauer without fear of having their confidence betrayed, as he considers his business a sacred trust. Mr. Bauer can be consulted daily at private residence 322 North Mulberry street, corner of Fourth.

Hours—9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily; 10 to 4 Sundays.
Readings $1.00, no more and no less. Mrs. Bauer receives all callers.

Notice—Positively no one seen after hours and no young ladies under 18 given readings unless accompanied by parents or guardians.—Advertisement.

NO. 224.

TO CANCEL DEEDS

SUITS FILED WEDNESDAY TO HAVE DEEDS SET ASIDE.

IN THE MOORE FAMILY

The Suits Are a 320-Acre Tract and a 160-Acre Tract of Land in Nodaway County.

By suits filed Wednesday by Shinnabarger, Blagg & Ellison, attorneys for Charles C. Moore of this city and his sister, Belle M. Russell of Seattle, Wash., they ask that deeds be set aside to 320 acres of land and 160 acres of land, both farms in Nodaway county. The first suit filed was that of C. C. Moore and Belle M. Russell vs. John Sylvester Moore, Jennie Luella Woodward, John M. Woodward, her husband, and R. D. Curl and Addie L. Curl, his wife.

The petition states that John Moore died February 6, 1913, leaving as heirs four children, C. C. Moore, Belle Russell, Sylvester Moore and Luella Woodward. About a month before his death, or January 2, 1913, the petition claims, John Moore executed and delivered a warranty deed to 320 acres of land in Nodaway county to R. D. Curl as a conduit of title only, and immediately thereafter R. D. Curl and his wife, joining, executed a warranty deed to John Moore for the term of his natural life, remainder in fee simple, J. Sylvester Moore and Jennie Luella Woodward as tenants in common. The petition alleges that no consideration was made and that the deed was not the free act and deed of John Moore. The petition says that John Moore was in feeble health and of unquand mind and weakened by illness to such an extent as to be incapable of transacting business and managing his own affairs, and that the defendants did poison his mind against plaintiffs by false statements, and that he was under the complete domination of J. Sylvester and Jennie Luella Woodward. John Moore was at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Woodward, in Pueblo, Col., at the time of his weakened condition and of his making out the deeds, the petition states.

The plaintiffs ask that the court set aside and cancel the deeds and invest the title to land to the plaintiffs and Sylvester Moore and Luella Woodward as tenants in common.

The other suit is Charles C. Moore and Belle M. Russell vs. John Sylvester Moore and Jennie Luella Woodward. The petition claims that Eliza F. Moore died August 19, 1912, and that on April 15, 1912, she executed and delivered a warranty deed to the defendants to 160 acres of land in Nodaway county, and the consideration was $9,000. According to the petition the plaintiffs say that there was no consideration and that the deed was not the free act and deed of Eliza F. Moore, as she was under the domination of the defendants. The plaintiffs ask that these deeds be set aside and canceled and that the title to the land be invested in her four children, C. C. Moore, Belle Russell, Sylvester Moore and Luella Woodward.

These cases will not come up until the June term of circuit court. The defendants, John Sylvester Moore resides at Kansas City and Jennie Luella Woodward at Pueblo, Col.

Miss Myrtle Peterson of Mariaville, Neb., who has been attending the Normal, and making her home with her cousin, Mrs. W. A. Miller, went to Bloomfield, Neb., Wednesday to visit a brother before returning home.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

To Be Held in St. Joseph March 6, 7 and 8—Dr. Taylor on the Program.

The program arranged for the interstate agricultural and industrial congress at St. Joseph, March 6, 7 and 8, can be truthfully characterized as the most complete and elaborate ever planned for a farm congress.

The best of the group of advanced students and authorities on agricultural conditions and problems have been secured for this the greatest farmers' institute ever held in the United States. And more than this, men who are past masters in the industries that are so closely allied to farming are on the program. A glance at the program will show any agriculturalist that those who attend the congress will be well repaid for the trip to St. Joseph.

The railways have made an open 2-cent rate from all Iowa and Missouri points for the congress, and this already applies from Kansas and Nebraska points. John A. Bellows and Edwin Bellows and Dr. Fred Honnold of Chicago arrived in Maryville Tuesday evening, called by the death of their brother and brother-in-law, George P. She will not return to Maryville at this time.

The funeral services will occur Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Bellows home, on East First street. The services will be conducted by Rev. Gilbert S. Cox. Burial will take place in Miriam cemetery and the services at the grave will be in charge of the Masons. Mr. Bellows was a member of Nodaway lodge, No. 470, A. F. and A. B. MCGREW DEAD

BARNARD FARMER PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY WEDNESDAY.

HAD STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. McGrew Was Forty-Three Years Old—A Brother of Mrs. Jessie Colden of This City.

Brint N. McGrew, a well known farmer living five and a half miles west of Barnard, died suddenly Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. McGrew had been afflicted with stomach trouble for several years, but had been in comparatively good health and always able to attend to his affairs. About 10 o'clock Wednesday morning he was taken ill and for twenty minutes before his death suffered intensely.

Dr. D. A. Pollard of Barnard was called as soon as he was seized with his sickness, and although the doctor left immediately for the McGrew home, he did not reach the sick man before death came. Mr. McGrew had just died when he reached the house.

The funeral services have not yet been arranged. Mr. McGrew is survived by his wife, who is prostrated by his death, and a 12-year-old daughter, Beatrice. Mr. McGrew was born in Nodaway county forty-three years ago and was a member of one of its best families.

He leaves two brothers and four sisters, Dan McGrew of Graham, Charles McGrew, living west of Barnard; Mrs. Jessie F. Colden of Maryville; Mrs. S. A. Hefflin and Miss Hallie McGrew of Wilcox, and Mrs. Ed Bigelow of Denver, Col.

The Normal girls' basket ball team returned home Wednesday noon from Amity, Ia., where they played the Amity college team on Tuesday night in the college gymnasium, the Amity girls winning by a score of 20 to 17. Those who made the trip were Captain Hazel Thompson, Carrie Abplanalp, Glen Hotchkiss, Helen Glibler, Dale Hoffman, Francyl Rickenbrode and Harriet VanBuren, Coach Moore and Miss Katherine Helwig as chaperon. Miss Blanche Shipp accompanied the team to Amity, and an auto party composed of Misses Allie Jean Fraser and Annie Bainum and Charles Andrews and Burman Wells also witnessed the game. Another auto party composed of Kirby Taylor, Lona Perrin and Fred Vandersloot went to Amity in the Taylor car Tuesday night, but up to Wednesday afternoon had not returned to Maryville. Hopkins, Miss Rose Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheley and Mrs. Martin Owens, all of Hopkins; Mrs. Bert Bratcher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ditto, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ditto, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orcutt, Mrs. Bert Hiatt, Tom Hiatt, Mrs. Henry Smock and Miss Nettie Smock.

Given a Surprise Party.

The Barnard Mt. Olive Rebekah lodge, No. 25, gave a surprise Tuesday evening, February 18, for Brother and Sister Lorenson, who intend to leave soon for their new home in Iowa. After spending a social hour at their home, all then proceeded to the basement of the I. O. O. F. building, where refreshments were served. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games. The members of the lodge wished them happiness and prosperity in their new home. Those present were Mrs. H. Lorenson, Mrs. H. Stalling, Mr. and Mrs. T. Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. F. Westfall, Mr. and Mrs. George Rasco, Mr. and Mrs. John Rasco, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. W. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Pollard, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. John Tulloch, Misses Jennie Rogers, Lavona Cook, Blanche Stallings, Kathryn Gardner, Jennie Beattie, Ida Campbell, Messrs. Dean Campbell, Elmer and Willmer Lorenson, P. K. Melvin.

Shower for Bride-Elect.

Misses Maggie and Dora Allen and Miss Bernice Cast gave a miscellaneous kitchen shower at the home of Misses Allen Tuesday evening in honor of a bride-elect of the Jewel Art club, whose name has not yet been given. The house decorations were in pink and green, ferns and blooming plants being used. The same colors were carried out in the two-course luncheon. Before the games at progressive dominoes began, several piano numbers were given by Miss Cleo Grundy, Miss Avis Pinnell and Miss Bessie Allen. The game prize, a bouquet of cut flowers, was won by Miss Mildred Cummings, and the consolation prize, a box of candy, went to Miss Oma Robey. After the games the shower was given the bride, every piece being in blue and white. Those present were Misses Lou and Mollie Henderson, Frankie Thompson, Bertha Anderson, Ola and Ora King, Lois and Mildred Cummings, Cleo and Marie Grundy, Mayme Tilson, Hazel Gove, Dona Thompson, Mrs. Nettie Warren, Florence Anderson, Sylvesta and Leona Holliday, Avis Pinnell, Bessie Webster.

Kitchen Shower for Bride-Elect.

The members of the Sunday school class taught by Miss Maude Roach at the M. E. church of Pickering, gave her a kitchen shower Tuesday night at the home of her father, T. H. Roach, near Pickering. The guests were dressed in fantastic costumes, some representing gypsies, some Indians, while others were in colonial costumes. They made the trip in a large wagon that stopped some distance from the Roach home as the visitors intended it for a surprise, which was entirely successful. Each one carried a musical instrument, consisting of banjos, guitars, horns, drums, and marched up the walk to the front entrance, playing Lohengrin's wedding march. The house appeared to be all in darkness, but the party marched around to the kitchen door where a light was burning, and where the bride-elect was busy with some preparation for her wedding day. When the door opened and a grotesque looking company filed in, she was badly frightened, but when they began singing a verse to the tune of "The Camels Are Coming," she realized that the secret she had guarded so carefully had gotten out and was hers no longer. Quite a musical program followed the original song, when a miscellaneous shower was given. Miss Roach is to be married Thursday, February 20, at high noon to Mr. Frank Shierly of Fillmore, Mo. The guests Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wray, Mrs. Roy Wolfers, Miss Maury Wolfers, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rickard, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Loch, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiley, Miss Minnie Everhart, Miss Hattie Patterson, Miss Edith Christy, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Miss Jessie Clayton, Messrs. Stant Gerten, Andrew King and Prof. Summerville.

A Book Masquerade Party.

Mrs. D. E. McDonald of South Main street entertained the Anoma class of the First Baptist church Sunday school Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Jean Andrews of Junction City, Kan., who spent several months in Maryville last year and was a member of the class. The guests represented the title of some book in attire, and some of the masquerading was exceedingly clever. "Peck's Bad Boy," "A Memory of India," "The Servant in the House" and "The Blue Flower" being the best in the order given. The evening was spent in contests and in trying to guess the titles of the books represented. The hostess was assisted in entertaining and serving by Miss Andrew, Miss Laura White and Miss Dorothy McDonald. A course luncheon was served at the close of a delightful evening. The evening was also the ninth wedding anniversary of Mrs. John Borrusch, one of the guests. The following books were represented by the guests whose names appear below: "Peck's Bad Boy," "A Memory of India," "A Servant in the House," "The Blue Flower," "The Rosary," "Lavender and Old Lace," "The Lass of the Silver Sword," "The Black Bag," "The Goose Girl," "The White Prophet," "She," "Madame X," "Little Women," "Cast Up by the Sea," "Cook Book," "Under Two Flags," "Heart of Gold." Those present were Miss Andrews, Miss Mabel Hunt, Mrs. Gay Leeper, Miss Ada Albert, Mrs. Stella Epperson, Miss Marcia Messenger, Mrs. John Borrusch, Mabel Grace Borrusch, Mrs. M. H. Borrusch, Paul Borrusch, Miss Laura White, Miss Eva Davis, Mrs. D. E. McDonald, Miss Dorothy McDonald, Miss Golda Adcock, Miss Hettie Roots, Miss Amelia Buthrus, Miss Bess Graves, Miss Sarah Grimes of Arkoe, Mrs. Lewis White, Misses Lou and Mollie Henderson.

Their Mid-Winter Social.

The M. L. Circle held its mid-winter social at the home of Mrs. Charles McNeal Tuesday afternoon, and it proved a very enjoyable affair. The usual devotional service was led by Mrs. C. B. Roberts. Roll call was responded to with original valentines, the Circle voting the prize to Mrs. T. K. Wray for writing the best valentine. Before the pleasures of the afternoon began the president, Mrs. W. B. Christy, spoke of the sorrow that had come to a retired member of the Circle, Mrs. M. J. Honnold, in the tragic death of her son-in-law, Mr. George P. Bellows, the day previous, and the members agreed to write words of sympathy to her. The afternoon was given mostly to viewing the private collections of works of art that had been gathered for the day by the entertainment committee, Mrs. W. B. Christy, Mrs. I. W. Nixon and Mrs. A. C. Hopkins. If the visitors to the exhibition had been high school girls instead of the dignified matrons they are they would have pronounced the affair "perfectly killing," and could never in the world have heeded the request of the president, "Please do not speak above a whisper or touch the exhibits," and received her approval at the close of the afternoon for having behaved so well. A delicious luncheon went along with the other good things of the day. The members, with their guests, present were: Mrs. W. A. Bailey, with Mrs. Lee Harrel as her guest; Mrs. W. A. Blagg, with Mrs. G. A. VanSteenbergh; Mrs. Vada Halley, with Mrs. L. L. Maier; Mrs. F. M. Martin, with Mrs. B. F. Duncan; Mrs. Charles McNeal, with her mother, Mrs. Lambert; Mrs. J. E. Melvin, with Mrs. C. Remus; Mrs. Walter Mutz, with Mrs. Emmett Scott; Mrs. I. W. Nixon, with Mrs. Cooper Gooden; Mrs. Eugene Ogden, with Mrs. S. E. Farmer; Mrs. C. B. Roberts, with Mrs. M. G. Tate; Mrs. Omar Catterson, with Mrs. R. S. Branigan; Mrs. W. B. Christy, with Mrs. Russell Martin; Mrs. J. F. Cook, with Mrs. E. L. Andrews, Mrs. A. C. Gann, with Mrs. W. M. Wallis, Sr.; Mrs. T. H. Cook, with Mrs. Albert Swann; Mrs. Clinton Davis, with her twin babies, Mildred Elizabeth and Clinton Davis, Jr.; Mrs. R. H. Duncan, with Mrs. J. D. Ford; Mrs. W. O. Garrett, with Mrs. C. J. Eckert; Mrs. O. L. Holmes, with Mrs. Gallatin Craig; Mrs. T. K. Wray, with Mrs. Lulu Blackman; Mrs. M. D. Kemp, with Mrs. S. H. For the Farmer Boys.

Editor Democrat-Forum: I have just read your interesting article in the weekly paper in which you refer to Professor Field's recent discovery of a latter day "Apollo." Now, I wonder where those country boys came from that were so round shouldered, flat chested and, generally speaking, awkward and ungainly, lacking in muscular development, etc. Possibly from among the hill Billies of the far south, though we doubt it, and certainly not from among the farmer boys of Northwest Missouri. The Columbia professor claims that the country boy has a slower beat of the heart, causing him to be less vigorous than the city boy. How, then, would he account for the marvelous energy of the French emperor, Napoleon I, who had a remarkable slow beat of the heart. I wonder if this "near Apollo" could "step lively" behind the corn plow on a hot summer afternoon and plow the customary forty rows of corn a quarter of a mile long, and still preserve that "divine pose" for which Apollos have always been pretty famous. When Uncle Sam is looking for infantrymen he invariably picks the boys who have learned to march behind the plow. They may not be able to "skin the cat" in a city gymnasium, but when it comes to feeding the multitude, may "their shadows never grow less," for without them many of us would "be an hungered" and sadly in need of comfortable raiment.

DIVORCE MADE HARD IN ILLS.

Remarriage Will Be Harder Still if Senator Phillips' Act Goes Into Effect.

Jefferson City, Feb. 19.—If measures pending in the senate and house regulating divorces in Missouri are enacted it will be a difficult matter for a couple to obtain a legal separation unless the grounds advanced are true and deserving.

A measure of Senator Phillips provides the guilty party, when a decree is granted, forfeits all rights and claims under and by virtue of the marriage and cannot marry again for a year except on an express order of the court.

The court before granting the decree can require proof of the good conduct of the petitioner to establish that he or she is really an innocent and injured party.

The court is empowered to appoint a person to make inquiry into the good faith of the applicant for the divorce for which service a fee of $10 is allowed.

The grounds for a decree are unfaithfulness, absence without a reasonable cause for a year, conviction for a felony or infamous crime, habitual drunkenness for a year, cruel or barbarous treatment, endangering life, indignities which make the life of the other person intolerable, conviction for a felony prior to the marriage, the knowledge of which is withheld from the other party when the ceremony is performed; bigamy and one or two other statutory offenses.

The first decree, under the provisions of another bill of Senator Phillips, is made provisional only, and one year later the court can, on the application of the injured party, make the divorce final on the proof of good conduct on his or her part.

PROTECTION OF AMERICANS NEXT

Immediate Demand to Be Made on New Mexican Government.

RECOGNITION WILL COME LATER

News of Political Upheaval in South Republic Relieves Washington Officials, but They Have No Comment to Make.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The government of Francisco I. Madero having fallen and General Victoriano Huerta having been proclaimed president of Mexico, it devolves upon United States Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson to move at once with the de facto Mexican government for the protection of Americans throughout the republic.

It will be Mr. Wilson's duty to deal with the new president for the amelioration of conditions imposed on Americans and other foreigners as a result of the fighting in the streets of Mexico City, in which some foreigners were killed, others wounded and thousands rendered homeless.

Two Leaders to Be Dealt With.

While this government will take no concern over a successor to President Madero, such a successor will have to demonstrate his ability to maintain a stable government before political recognition will be accorded him by the United States. Mexico today is honeycombed and torn asunder by many revolutionary movements. The principal of these are the Orozco move in the north and the Zapata uprising in the south. Lawlessness has become rife and robber bands, masquerading as revolutionists, have sent terror through the states of Mexico from the Rio Grande to Yucatan.

In order to lay claim to political recognition from this government, the United States will demand that the new president, be he General Huerta or some other, must suppress these disturbing elements, restore order and establish the workings of justice in the states.

The formality of political recognition in all likelihood will fall to the administration of President elect Wilson.

MANY TRAINING FOR RIDE

Morehead Will Head New Jersey Civic Division in Inaugural Parade.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Perspiring gentlemen, portly and otherwise, are to be encountered these days on every road bounding up and down on horseback. Equestrians who have never before been in the saddle have been requested to act as marshals in the parade. There are 300 marshals in the country, and they were given orders to go into training. It developed that because of the fact that several governors propose riding at the head of their state troops, a number of state delegations will be headed by the governors of other states. New Jersey's civic division will be led by the governor of Nebraska.

ALTER TROTTERING CONDITIONS

American Association Gives Local Stewards Latitude Under Rules.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—After a stormy session a special meeting of the American Trotting association decided to permit stewards and promoters of harness race meetings held under the auspices of the association a certain latitude in making local rules governing their meetings. The association limited this concession by forbidding the adoption of any "local rules or by laws which conflict with the rules of the association."

Hobbles may not be used on racing horses three years old and under.

Wisconsin Upper Berth Act Upheld.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 19.—The supreme court upheld the constitutional ity of the "upper berth law" enacted by the 1911 legislature. This law provides that the upper berth shall be closed when not occupied. The company contended that the state law does not reach sleeping cars engaged in interstate commerce and that the interstate commerce commission has full power to regulate the operation of sleeping cars. The court held that the law is not in conflict with the interstate commerce act.

Steamer on Rocks; Crew Rescued.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The schooner Montrose W. Houck, Tampa to Baltimore, is ashore off Paul Gamble Hill life saving station, North Carolina, with a heavy sea beating against her. WETS AT PEACE WITH THE DRYS

Liquor War Ended at Missouri Democratic Caucus.

WILSON IS THE PEACEMAKER.

Jefferson City, Feb. 19.—An agreement was reached upon home rule bills for St. Louis in a caucus of the Democratic members of the legislature. It is believed that the bills, as agreed upon, will go through the legislature without further opposition, and the most troublesome problem of the session, which threatened to block all legislation, is settled.

The bill agreed upon for home rule on police affairs provides for a bipartisan board of police commissioners of two. The commissioners are to be appointed by the mayor and subject to removal by him and also by the governor by dereliction in office. The bill also provides that in event the governor is compelled to remove three commissioners the power of appointing the next commissioners shall be with the governor.

Senator Wilson was the man who finally got the "wets" and "dry" together on the home rule bill. He took the stand that the platform pledge for home rule must be kept. At the same time he got the St. Louis delegation to agree on concessions which satisfied the "dry."

A bill abolishing capital punishment in Missouri was introduced in the house by Representative Bretz of St. Joseph.

Tram 7,000 Miles.

St. Louis, Feb. 19.—Sergeant John M. Walsh, United States army, arrived at Jefferson barracks on foot after a 7,000-mile tramp across the continent and back under orders to test army shoes. Walsh is wearing the fourth pair of shoes he is officially testing.

SUFFRAGE BILL MOVES UP.

Senate Ordered Resolution Engrossed—Craig Was the Leader.

Jefferson City, Feb. 19.—The proposed woman suffrage amendment to the constitution was ordered engrossed by the senate Tuesday by enough votes to pass it, unless meantime some of the senators change their minds. There was no debate on the merits of the resolution.

Senator Goodson of Macon offered three amendments, all of which were defeated. The first added a new section providing an educational qualification, save as to persons who were legal voters in 1856.

Another amendment making a poll tax receipt a necessary qualification to voting on the part of those subject to such tax. This was lost without debate as was also a third amendment offered providing a state-wide registration of voters.

The roll was not called but nineteen senators voted to engross the measure and five against it.

Only one of the leading suffragettes, Mrs. D. W. Kneffler of St. Louis, was in the senate chamber. She took her position immediately behind Senator Craig of Nodaway county, and at times coached the latter to attack the Goodson amendments.

If the legislature adopts the measure the state will vote on the amendment in November, 1914.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage a
Simple Remedy for Dandruff,
Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with a "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp, and thin, weak, falling hair.

The beauty of the hair depends more on its rich, even shading than anything else. Don't have dry, harsh faded hair, when a simple, harmless remedy will bring back the color in a few days, and don't be tormented with dandruff, itching scalp and loose, falling hairs. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will quickly correct these troubles, and give color, strength and beauty to your hair.

Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and prove this to your own satisfaction. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

MADERO DEPOSED BY TROOPS

Huerta Made Governor of Mexico.

COUP RESULT OF PLOT

Former Popular Idol is Forced to Sign His Resignation.

Mexico City, Feb. 19.—Francisco I. Madero, arrested in the national palace by General Blanquet, one of his own commanders, was forced to sign his resignation from the presidency.

General Victoriano Huerta, who has been fighting Diaz, has been proclaimed provisional governor.

Gustav Madero and all the cabinet ministers, with the exception of Ernesto Madero, are under arrest.

The vice president of the republic, Jose Pino Suarez, still is at liberty, but is hiding.

The American ambassador and the other foreign diplomats held a conference at the American embassy to discuss the re-establishment of order and the further protection of foreign residents.

The Zocalo, the great plaza in front of the palace, was jammed with a delirious crowd, with banners inscribed "Peace and Liberty," shouting for Diaz, Huerta, Blanquet and Mondragon.

Women Saved From Arrest.

The women members of the Madero family, who were in the Chapultepec castle, were whisked away in an automobile by friends who had learned of the coup at the national palace.

Telegrams have been sent to the governors of the states, notifying them of the proclamation of Huerta as provisional governor, and also to the military commanders, assuring them that general elections will be held for president.

Huerta Not Ambitious.

General Huerta made a speech from the balcony of the palace to assembled crowds. He declared he had no personal ambition, and announced himself as military governor and General Blanquet as military commander of the federal district.

It is fully believed that a definite agreement will be reached between the rebel forces and General Huerta. The negotiations will be conducted through the American embassy.

About the time Madero was seized by Blanquet, Gustavo Madero, his brother, the former minister of finance, was arrested by General Huerta, who was dining with him in a public restaurant.

All members of the cabinet promptly were placed under arrest with the exception of Ernesto Madero, the uncle of the president, who held the portfolio of finance. He was apprised of the intentions against the Madero government and made his escape.

Plot Laid by Generals.

The direct movement against Madero was the result of a plot.

From the first it had been known that General Blanquet was unwilling to fight. His men were of the same mind. His forces, numbering 1,000 men, which arrived Monday, were sent immediately to the palace, ostensibly to relieve the reserves there.

An agreement between Generals Blanquet and Huerta was reached, but the first intimation that Blanquet's men had of the new role they were to play was shortly before the successful strike was made. Blanquet drew his men up in order and delivered a stirring speech.

Blanquet Addresses Men.

"This inhuman battle must end," he said. "The time has come when some drastic means must be taken to stop a conflict in which father is killing son and in which brother is fighting against brother, when non-combatants are sharing the fate of war—and all this because of the caprice of one man."

Blanquet then issued orders for the arrest of Madero and assigned a detachment to that duty. Madero was soon a prisoner in his own rooms.

One reason given for the attitude of General Blanquet from the beginning was the presence of his son in the ranks of Diaz.

When the arrest of the president and his ministers became known crowds gathered in the streets, through which they paraded shouting "vivas" for Huerta and Diaz.

A conference was held between the representatives of these two generals and an agreement was reached whereby the appointment of General Huerta to the provisional presidency was proclaimed.

Prior to this, however, Huerta's attempt to communicate with Diaz precipitated one of the sharpest engagements of the day. The fire from the rebel rifles and machine guns was long sustained. A half hour later

"cease firing" was heard and the battle was over.

Madero Overpowered.

Members of Madero's staff rushed into his room when Madero was struggling with the soldiers and went to his aid, but their efforts were of no avail. Captain Garmendia, who had just been appointed chief of police, advanced upon Colonel Riverolla, shooting and wounding him seriously. Immediately there was an exchange of shots and three or four members of the president's staff are said to have been wounded.

The arrest of Madero took place in the hall of the ambassadors. When the president entered the room he found all the entrances guarded.

Tries to Shoot President.

One soldier, over-excited by the words of Blanquet, pointed his gun at the breast of Madero, who leaped upon him. In the struggle the gun was discharged without injuring anyone. The soldier was disarmed and placed under arrest by order of General Huerta on the charge of firing without orders.

General Huerta was formerly commander of the north division of the army. He has seen much service in the present campaign and last year fought a number of engagements against the insurgents under Orozco. Huerta retired from his command last December and was offered a post in the war department.

When the Diaz revolt began in the capital, Huerta led the government troops and was named as post commander of Mexico City when General Villar was wounded.

Isidore Stein, known as "Izzy the Painter," a Sing Sing prison convict, whose confession was followed by many indictments, was the state's first witness against Rubin. "Izzy" gave the jury a graphic narration of how he fired buildings for the purpose of enabling members of the "trust" to defraud fire insurance companies.

TAFT'S VETO OVERTURNED

Senate Passes Immigration Bill by Big Vote.

HOUSE LIKELY TO DO SAME.

Literacy Test Finds Only Eighteen Opponents in Upper House—Lodge Charges Steamship Companies Behind Opposition to Act.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill, vetoed by President Taft because it imposed a literacy test upon immigrants, was passed over the president's veto in the senate, 52 to 18. The overwhelming majority given at the end of a short debate, in which President Taft's attitude was criticized vigorously, has strengthened the probability that the bill will be passed over the veto in the house when it is called up.

Support of the president's position was voiced in the debate but few speakers. Senators Lodge and Dillingham, leading the fight to override the president, declared the measure outlined so many important provisions for the exclusion of criminal, diseased and insane aliens that great harm would result to the United States if it did not become law.

"I fail to understand why it is that the United States alone among nations is not thought to have the right that all nations have to say who shall come within its borders," said Senator Lodge. "It is the only country in the world where it is argued that people born in other countries who never have seen the United States are entitled to certain rights therein."

Would Exercise Right.

"It is for the citizens of the United States to say who shall come into their country. That is a primary right. Still less do I understand this extreme opposition to requiring that an immigrant shall be able to read before he enters the United States. We do not allow a man to become a part of our body politic unless he can read and write his name."

"We do not hesitate to apply a literacy test to our own people. Why is it we should hesitate to apply it to a foreigner?"

"The opposition to this test at bottom is the same opposition that is made to every effort to improve our immigration laws or restrict in any degree the number of immigrants. It comes from the steamship companies. For twenty-five years we have met that opposition at every turn. It is here today."

"My reason for supporting the bill," said Senator Williams, "is that I am afraid of ignorance. I am afraid of the man who strikes out blindly to overcome the wrongs he thinks exist."

Legislature to Probe Gotham Police.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19.—The New York state legislature adopted a resolution providing for a searching investigation of the New York city police situation by a joint committee of five senators and six assemblymen. BALDHEADED ROW.

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness.

Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs? And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill these germs is to use Parisian Sage, which the Koch pharmacy has so much faith in that they guarantee it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic, pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit.

"It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by the Koch Pharmacy for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.—Advertisement.

OLD AGE DEFERRED.

Echo From the Medico-Legal Society.

A few generations back a man at 50 was considered old, gray-bearded, and waiting for death. Note the change today; at a meeting of the Medico-Legal society it was stated that a man of 50 ought to have forty good years ahead of him, and thus at 90 be in the fullness of maturity.

What if you have seen sixty, or even seventy birthdays—temperate habits, fresh air and exercise, with a simple diet and a sufficient amount of sleep will guard your health.

If perchance your circulation is poor, if you become run down—weak and no appetite—nothing in the world will tone up those tired back-sliding organs—enrich the blood and create strength so quickly as our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol.

We ask every feeble, discouraged old person in this vicinity to try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction.—Advertisement.
